I represent that my thesis/dissertation and abstract are my original work. Proper attribution has been given to all outside sources. I understand that I am solely responsible for obtaining any needed copyright permissions. I have obtained needed written permission statements(s) from the owner(s) of each third-party copyrighted matter to be included in my work, allowing electronic distribution. I certify that the version of the thesis/dissertation that I submit is the same as that approved by my advisory committee. I hereby grant to the University of Massachusetts Medical School and its agents an irrevocable, non-exclusive, and royalty-free license to archive and make accessible my work in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known. I agree that the full text of my thesis/dissertation may be made available immediately for worldwide access if I do not choose to apply an embargo. If I decide to apply an embargo, my thesis/dissertation in eScholarship@UMMS will be added without the full text and only descriptive information (title, author, abstract, advisors, and departmental affiliation) will be displayed until the embargo expiration date. I retain all other ownership rights to the copyright of the dissertation. I also retain the right to use in future works (such as articles or books) all or part of this thesis/dissertation. I understand that I am free to register the copyright to my work with the U.S. Copyright Office.

Review, Approval and Acceptance

This document has been reviewed and accepted by the student's advisor(s), on behalf of the advisory committee and the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences; we verify that this is the final, approved version of the student's thesis/dissertation including all changes required by the advisory committee. The undersigned agree to abide by the statements above.
