The screenshot shows the website peterelbow.com/articles.html. The header includes the name "PETER ELBOW" and the tagline "The Democratization of Writing". Navigation links for HOME, ABOUT, BOOKS, ARTICLES, ARCHIVE, and BLOG are visible. A large red arrow points from the "Works" tab on the left screenshot to the "Articles" section on this page. The "Articles" section features a gallery of two items: a photograph of a grand, domed interior space and a quote: "Everyone agrees in theory that we can't judge a new idea or point of view unless we enter into it and try it out -- but the practice itself is rare. The Believing & Doubting Game". Below the gallery, the heading "Scholarly Articles" is followed by a list of article titles and their publication details.
